

I think honestly you will elect me to this fall. I am a Democrat, and a life-long one. I believe that the national and state policies of the party are to be applied to the administration of the city. I believe that what the city needs is an honest and businesslike administration, and it is quite plain that neither in the administration of the city nor in the administration of the policies of national politics.

In all the departments of the city business methods should prevail. I believe that Mr. Low has said about the administration of the city government, and like him I will take occasion at this date in a letter to accept the nominations and discuss the issues of the campaign more formally.

Mr. Putnam then spoke in a letter to Mr. Low. He said that he was in the honor of the committee and under the instruction of the Citizens' Union to tender to you the nomination for the position of President of the Board of Aldermen of our city. The citizens of New York are determined to secure a business administration of its affairs. We may, with confidence, come to an understanding with you, and we believe you will be called upon to discharge under the new administration the duties of a Mayor.

It is our belief that the resources of our metropolis, if administered as they are, are ample to secure for the advantage of good government with a very much less expenditure in any one year than that by which it is now burdened. There is no reason why we should be done in. It is in the hands of the people to elect a Mayor and in the hands of the people to elect a Board of Aldermen, and it is our duty to elect an administration that will do this.

Mr. Fomes in accepting the nomination said that he wished to express the confidence of the Citizens' Union in the high honor which had been done him. He continued:

I feel this honor more deeply as the nomination has come to me unthought, unlooked for and unexpected from the people of the city. Probably never before has there been such unanimity of desire on the part of all the people of New York for a better government. The people of New York today want to make for themselves a government that will be known not only throughout the United States, but throughout the world.

After the notification the candidates for the common council grouped together, photographed, and then everybody shook hands with Mr. Low, Mr. Groat and Mr. Fomes and left them to have a little chat about their work in the campaign.

THE BROOKLYN DEMOCRACY.
Last Evening's Convention Enthusiastic for the Anti-Tammany City Ticket.

The Brooklyn Democracy, which is the outgrowth of former Senator Michael J. Coffey's revolt against the Willoughby street machine and is one of the leading anti-Tammany organizations in the borough, held a convention last night at the Athenaeum in Atlantic avenue to ratify the nominations made by the Republican City Convention and the Citizens' Union Convention. It was one of the most earnest and enthusiastic political gatherings which have taken place in Brooklyn for some time, and from the character of the proceedings there can be no longer any question as to the support of Michael J. Coffey will do their level best to contribute to the overthrow of Tammany and its Brooklyn annex.

The hall was crowded to overflowing and among the delegates were men who had previously been prominent in the regular Democratic organization. This list included Patrick Hayes, former Congressman Daniel O'Reilly, Rufus L. Scott, J. Edward Swanson, Ed. C. Murphy, William L. Denack, Henry R. Nostrand, Charles W. Southard, Dennis W. Sullivan and Otto Kempner. From first to last, the proceedings were marked by the greatest spirit and enthusiasm and the cheers for Low, Groat and Fomes, rang out again and again.

Former Congressman Mitchell May was chairman and Michael J. Kennedy was secretary. Mr. May made a stirring address in which he denounced the methods in Tammany and Willoughby street and urged the members of the Brooklyn Democracy to stand shoulder to shoulder in the fight.

Mr. Kempner then presented the platform which was adopted unanimously. The platform declares that for the purposes of this local campaign the Brooklyn Democracy heartily approves of the platform adopted by the Citizens' Union and the Anti-Tammany organization that has already been published.

Former Senator Coffey presented the report of the Conference Committee. The report says:

In the opinion of your Conference Committee the city ticket, as finally agreed upon by the Citizens' Union and the Anti-Tammany organization, is one of the best that has been named. All are men of excellent reputation and of proved capacity for administrative duties. Their nomination signifies a clear-cut line between the forces of corruption, as represented by Tammany Hall and its Willoughby street annex on the one side, and the elements that favor decent government on the other. In that contest our standard bearers, Low, Groat and Fomes, are sure to win.

The report was approved. Speeches were made by Mr. Scott, Mr. Church, Mr. Swanson and others.

GRUBER'S MESSAGE TO CROKER.
It is in verse and was launched at Riverside Club Ratification Meeting.

The Riverside Republican Club, the organization club in the Twenty-first Assembly district, met last evening and ratified the city ticket nominated at the Republican City Convention on Tuesday. There were speeches by the orators in the club, and they promised that the district would do as well for Low at the polls as it did for Low and Tracy together four years ago.

The messages of Richard, the Englishman, were as follows:

You and I are sons of Erin,
And we love the Englishman,
That is why I live in Britain,
And you live in New York.

D. B. HILL'S CANDIDATE WINS.

GEN. AMASA J. PARKER NOMINATED FOR MAYOR OF ALBANY.

Supreme Court Justice Herick Downed in Convention, Although Some of the Other Places on the Ticket Went to His Men—Ex-Mayor Manning With Him.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Gen. Amasa J. Parker was nominated to-night for Mayor by the Albany City Democratic Convention. Mr. Parker was the candidate favored by ex-Senator Hill, State Comptroller Wood and Eugene D. Wood. There were two other candidates before the convention, George H. Thacher, who was backed by the faction of Supreme Court Justice Herick, and Jacob L. Teneyck, who is one of the leaders of the Wood-McCabe city organization. Of the 115 votes in the convention on the first ballot, Mr. Parker received 68, Mr. Thacher 41, and Mr. Teneyck 11.

Mr. Thacher is a brother of John Boyd Thacher, who, for a brief period, was a candidate for Governor from the Democratic State ticket in 1896 having been forced off by the Bryanites before he had a chance to start his canvass. Gen. Parker has served two terms in the State Senate, running for that office each time when Justice Herick controlled absolutely the Democratic organization in the city and county.

James N. Manning, another old Herick Democrat and a son of the late Daniel Manning, placed Gen. Parker in nomination. Mr. Manning was twice elected Mayor of Albany under the auspices of the Herick machine, once receiving a bigger majority than his Republican opponent's vote. Heretofore Mr. Manning has always been classed as a Herick Democrat, but he has now become a supporter of David B. Hill and State Comptroller McCabe. While Messrs. Wood and McCabe are largely responsible for the local defeat of the Supreme Court Justice Herick at the primaries, naturally they have been guided in their fight by Mr. Hill, who was much in evidence to-night, when the leaders of the convention held long conferences in his law office.

The other city candidates nominated were: Supreme Court Justice Herick, Comptroller Charles A. Pritchard, President of the Common Council, Thomas D. Fitzgerald, Assessors, Daniel G. H. Bratley, City Judge, M. J. Severance. The candidates named for Comptroller, Treasurer, Police Judge and for the first Assessor are Herick, Manning, Wood and McCabe.

The convention unanimously adopted the following resolution offered by Col. William G. Rice, who was a United States Senator from 1880 to 1884, and who defeated Justice Herick in his own ward at the primaries:

Democrats of Albany, in convention assembled, place upon record formal expression of their abhorrence of that crime against the people which has robbed our commonwealth of a President. The assassination was an attack on liberty and free institutions, as embodied in the head of our Government. While we thus record our condemnation, we rejoice that in the conviction of the murderer justice through all the forms of law has followed quickly upon the crime.

FIGHT BEGINS NEXT WEEK.
First Anti-Tammany Campaign Meeting to be Held Next Saturday Night.

The first big political meeting of the campaign will be a mass meeting in Cooper Union on Saturday evening of next week at which all the candidates on the Anti-Tammany ticket will speak under the auspices of the Citizens' Union. The hall Cooper Union has been hired, and arrangements will be made for overflow meetings. There will be music and possibly fireworks, and some red-hot Anti-Tammany talk.

The Citizens' Union began yesterday the collection of funds with which to carry on the campaign. The finance committee, consisting of Isaac N. Seligman, R. Fulton, Robert C. Ogden, J. Kennedy, Tod, G. W. Schell, and E. L. Gould, have sent out personal letters asking for contributions to the war chest. The Union depends entirely on voluntary contributions to carry on its work. Within a few days an appeal will be issued to the public inviting citizens who are interested in good government to subscribe to the campaign fund.

It is believed that the amount of money which will be received in sums individually small, but from a large number of contributors will be very considerable. Already the Union has received a number of contributions, notably from persons living in the lower East side. All of these persons have said in effect that they were not able to contribute large amounts, but that they intended to give as much as they could. The list of names and the amount they intended to contribute is being kept by the finance committee. Several of the members of the Union are wealthy and from them large subscriptions are expected.

The expenses of the campaign will be very heavy. The leaders of the Union believe that the long battle which the forces of corruption are waging with the forces of decency will be won by many small meetings covering the entire city and penetrating every section of every Assembly district. This style of campaigning is expensive, for it involves the hiring of large numbers of speakers, trucks, horses and attendants, and large expenditures for decorations and illuminations. The managers of the Union are convinced that less good is done by the big mass meetings which usually bring a spectacular feature to the campaign, than by the small meetings near the homes of the voters, and this rule is likely to be adhered to throughout the campaign.

ALL FOR LOW IN BROOKLYN.

Factional Hostilities End—All Republicans and Many Democrats United.

Lieut.-Gov. Timothy L. Woodruff, the Republican leader in Brooklyn, resumed yesterday the conference with the committees of the various anti-Tammany and anti-Willoughby street organizations over the distribution of the local nomination. The sharp competition for places on the ticket resulted in a large measure from the confidence in a sweeping victory at the polls, which has been intensified since the nomination of Seth Low for Mayor and Edward M. Groat for Comptroller.

Each outside organization has asked for more recognition from the Republicans than can possibly be accorded, but in spite of some friction, and in the way, it was confidently expected last night that when the various committees got together to-day those would quickly be brushed aside and a single ticket decided upon, which will receive the hearty and united support of Republicans, the Citizens' Union, the Grubbers and the German-American allies at the polls. The Republican state ticket has been set, a shattering example to the independent sets by setting their own family quarrels before the campaign begins.

Col. Michael J. Kelly and Rose Appleton, who long had been engaged in a bitter factional fight for control in the Third Assembly district, shook hands yesterday, and their only fighting for the next six weeks will be against the Croker-McLaughlin cohorts. All other factional hostilities have well nigh disappeared, and for the first time in several years the Republican Party in Brooklyn is going to present a solid and united front to the enemy.

It appeared almost certain last night that Rufus L. Scott, the chairman of the Brooklyn Democracy, would be nominated for President of the borough, although the Citizens' Union people continued to press against his selection and urged R. Rose Appleton for the place. Mr. Woodruff expects that the opposition to Mr. Scott will be withdrawn to-day, and in addition to the President of the borough the Brooklyn Democracy will get another place on the ticket, while two places will also go to the Citizens' Union and one place to the German-Americans, leaving six offices for the Republicans.

It has been decided that ex-Judge William Kramer will be nominated for Magistrate in the Third district and Charles S. Devoy for Magistrate in the Fifth. The German-Americans are earnestly pushing ex-Assessor Otto Kemper for one of the county court nominations. Robert Baker, Secretary of the Citizens' Union, announced last night that the conference committee of the party had failed to agree with Mr. Woodruff's plan of coalition and that the union would now proceed to make its own local nominations. Other members of the union said that the situation might be changed to-day.

McLAUGHLIN CANT LAND COLER.
Will Try to get Powerful Influences Are Pledged Against Him.

Former Register Hugh McLaughlin held a close and protracted contest yesterday morning at the Willoughby street auction room in Brooklyn with his chief lieutenants, including James Shevlin, Senator P. H. McGarron, former Congressman John McCarthy, former Congressman John Clancy, and Bridge Commissioner John L. B. Coler. The political fight was a bitter one. Mr. Coler, who joined in the confab before the termination, was the weighty subject under consideration. And when the conference broke up the news was circulated in all directions from the room that the "Boss" had finally determined to make a fight in the convention for the nomination of Coler for Mayor, regardless of what might result to the feelings of Richard Croker on the subject.

This is all that Mr. McLaughlin would say about the situation. "I must refer you to the press," he said, "for the details of the fight." Mr. Coler, who is now in the city, is a powerful Democratic ticket leader in Brooklyn, and has more than 100,000 votes in the city. He is a powerful man, and his nomination would be a great blow to the Croker machine.

A powerful Democratic ticket leader in Brooklyn, and has more than 100,000 votes in the city. He is a powerful man, and his nomination would be a great blow to the Croker machine. The Croker machine has been very active in the city, and has been very successful in the past. But now, with the nomination of Coler, the Croker machine is in a very difficult position.

DARES TO ASK NEGRO VOTE.
Tammany Efforters That Recall the Brutal West Side Race Riots.

About this time in every year of a municipal campaign the Tammany organization makes a bid for the negro vote. Four years ago, with the use of a negro organizer named Edward Lee, who called himself "Chief of the Colored Democracy," and whose followers called him the "Colored Croker," the Hall succeeded in getting up a pretty big club of Democratic negroes. After the election of 1896, when the Tammany party was defeated, the Tammany party urged the white men on to brutally ill-treat the negroes.

More than one of the negroes who were taken to the police stations, where, according to the affidavits that were gathered up after the affair was over, they were assaulted by members of the Tammany party. Tammany wants to have this forgotten, and another effort is making to get the negroes to organize in behalf of the Tammany party. The Tammany party is very active in the city, and has been very successful in the past. But now, with the nomination of Coler, the Tammany party is in a very difficult position.

VIRGINIA DEMOCRATS DIFFER.
Senator Carter Glass Resigns From State Executive Committee.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 27.—Because he could not stomach the machine methods indulged in, State Senator Carter Glass to-day resigned as a member of the State Democratic Executive Committee from the Sixth district. The committee was in session until nearly 3 o'clock this morning considering a contest in Norfolk county, where there are two Democratic candidates for Governor, one of whom is a member of the committee. The committee was very active in the city, and has been very successful in the past. But now, with the nomination of Coler, the committee is in a very difficult position.

There was a mass of testimony before the committee, each side accusing the other of various crimes. The committee was very active in the city, and has been very successful in the past. But now, with the nomination of Coler, the committee is in a very difficult position.

THE AXE FOR CASSIDY MEN.
One More of Them, Ambrose Madden, Goes Down in Long Island City.

Ambrose Madden, Inspector of Corporations in the Department of Highways, in the borough of Queens, was removed from his place yesterday by Deputy Commissioner of Highways Charles C. Wessel. Mr. Madden was a brother of the late John P. Madden, who was Democratic leader in Queens and Deputy Commissioner of Highways. Mr. Wessel was appointed to the position after the death of Mr. Madden. It was stated in Long Island City last night that Ambrose Madden favored the cause of Councilman Joseph Cassidy at the recent primary, and was decapitated officially on that account.

President Roosevelt Will Reappoint Collector Bidwell.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—The assurance is given on very high authority that President Roosevelt will reappoint George R. Bidwell, Collector of Customs at New York. There is absolutely no opposition to Mr. Bidwell's reappointment. The story that formal charges against Bidwell have been filed with the President is denied. The only opponents to Mr. Bidwell's reappointment are the members of the Croker machine, who are very active in the city, and has been very successful in the past. But now, with the nomination of Coler, the Croker machine is in a very difficult position.

Will Weed out the Twenty-Third Evening.
Mr. Croker will receive at the Democratic Club this morning the committee of the Chicago Platform Democrats, who are going to advise him to nominate a red-hot Chicago platform Democrat for Mayor. What they say will be referred to the City Committee, which is to meet in the evening at the club to consider the list of twenty Mayoralties possibilities which were submitted to it this week. It is expected that only twenty will be eliminated at this meeting.

A TALK WITH SENATOR HANNA

HE THINKS CONGRESS WILL ACT ON MCKINLEY'S SPEECH.

Treaties to Come Up at Next Session in Which Reciprocity May Be Incorporated—He Expresses Confidence in Roosevelt—Will Not Speak of Assassination.

BOSTON, Sept. 27.—Senator Marcus A. Hanna, his daughter, Miss Ruth Hanna, and party who are on their way from Cleveland, Ohio, to Bath, Me., to attend the launching of the United States cruiser Cleveland to-morrow, were in Boston a short time to-day. They came by the Boston and Albany Railroad, and were driven to North Union Station and left at 11:15 o'clock this afternoon for Bath in the private car of President Tuttle of the Boston and Maine Railroad. Miss Hanna is to christen the new cruiser.

In the party besides Senator Hanna and his party, are Miss Phelps and Miss Lucy McCurdy of Cleveland, intimate friends of the President. Mr. Hanna, President of the Nickel Plate Railroad System, W. O. Mather, F. H. Glidden, Fred C. Howe, H. K. Hatch, W. J. Carter and Harvey D. Goulder. Wilcox M. Day will meet the party at Portland, Me. The gentlemen with Senator Hanna will represent the city of Cleveland at the Chamber of Commerce at the launching.

Mr. Carter is the representative of the Mayor of Cleveland, President Tuttle of the Boston and Maine Railroad, and as he arrived at the North Station and remained with it until the departure of the train.

Senator Hanna has the fullest confidence in President Roosevelt.

"Roosevelt has said that he will carry out Mr. McKinley's policy," said the Senator to a reporter, and I believe I believe that I believe that President McKinley's ideas of reciprocity, as outlined in his speech at Buffalo, are the basis of our policy. I believe that a matter that will have to be dealt with at the next session of Congress. There are several treaties to be considered then, to wit: The Argentine treaty, the Argentine treaty, and a number of others.

"What do I think will be the outcome? Of course I don't know. But I think that what the reports to be made contain we do not know, but I think they will result in free reciprocity with at least some of the countries. I believe that Senator Hanna would not discuss the result of the trial of President McKinley's assassin.

"Do you know," he said when asked about Coler, "I haven't said a word about that man and I am not going to. The shock of that affair has been a terrible one."

BROOKLYN MEN URGE COLER.
Delegation Calls on Coler in the Interest of the Comptroller.

James Shevlin, ex-Senator McCarthy and Senator P. H. McGarron of Brooklyn were at the Democratic Club last evening, and a delegation of the city went to the home of Mr. Coler, who is now in the city, to urge his nomination for Mayor. The delegation was very active in the city, and has been very successful in the past. But now, with the nomination of Coler, the delegation is in a very difficult position.

MURPHY MUST ACT SOON.
If He Ignores Charges Against Devery Merchants Will Appeal to Mayor.

The charges preferred against Deputy Police Commissioner Devery by the Merchants' Association are still held up at the Corporation Counsel's office. Commissioner Murphy said yesterday that he hadn't heard from Mr. Whalen. The members of the Merchants' Association are not worrying much over Commissioner Murphy's delay in making answer to the charges. It was said yesterday that if Commissioner Murphy does not make some reply by next Tuesday, which will be a week after the charges were made, the Merchants' Association will then make its next move. It is understood that then the charges will be presented to the Mayor.

MR. CARLISLE'S A VOLUNTEER.
Offered His Services to Represent Justice Jerome Against Devery.

John G. Carlisle, ex-Secretary of the Treasury, the eminent counsel who is to represent Justice Jerome on Monday in the argument before Justice O'Gorman in the Supreme Court on Deputy Commissioner Devery's alternative writ of habeas corpus, volunteered his services. Justice Jerome and the District Attorney's office regard this as an evidence that they are correct in their holding that Devery's actions while sitting as a quasi-judge are amenable to criminal prosecution. Mr. Carlisle has already conferred with Assistant District Attorney Gans and DeForest Baldwin, who was retained by the committee of 15 to look after the interests of former Police Commissioner O'Neil, whom Col. Murphy dismissed from the force last Thursday.

WILL QUIT THE AMAIGAMATED.
Belair, Ohio, Lodge Resents Treatment by the National Officers.

BELAIR, Ohio, Sept. 27.—The Belair lodge of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers will withdraw from the parent body. The seceders will take the step because, as they say, the settlement of the strike that continued at the Belair works of the National Steel Company long after the general adjustment was made at a disadvantage to the Belair lodge. A meeting was held last night which resulted in the majority of the workers determining to return to the mill. The mill managers have refused to take back twenty of the leaders of the local strike.

Wholesale Porters Form a Union.
It was announced yesterday that the wholesale porters have been organized into a union under the auspices of the American Federation of Labor. A meeting is to be held in a few days to elect officers for the new organization and agree upon a scale of wages.

"Nervous Prostration Cured by DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY."

"I am an engineer by trade and the hard work and worry of running a large engine brought on nervous prostration," writes Mr. Charles F. Dixon, of Arbutus, Cal., "I tried a friend recommended Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and I bought one bottle; thought that it helped me so continued the use of it until I had taken six bottles. I feel better than ever in my life. Am not a particle nervous, can work hard all day, sleep sound at night. I not only think so but I know that the 'Golden Medical Discovery' cured me and therefore I will recommend it to others."

THE STANDARD FOR CHAMPAGNE QUALITY.

Ridley's Wine and Spirit Trade Circular again shows POMMERY to be the highest-priced Champagne, the following figures having been realized at a public auction sale held in London, by Messrs. W. & T. Restell, one of the leading brokers, on March 21, 1901:

This shows a difference in price of from $3.25 to $10 a case in favor of Pommery.

IN THE UNITED STATES
POMMERY is sold at wholesale by the trade for $32.50 per case, while other champagnes are sold from $26.50 to $32.50 per case. Notwithstanding this, Pommery is generally sold at retail at the same price per BOTTLE as lower priced champagnes.

Plight of a Policeman Who Arrested One of Natch's Friends.

The friends of Policeman James R. Buckridge, who was transferred last Wednesday from the East 126th street station to the Alexander avenue station in The Bronx, are going to try and find out why he has been shifted at least four or five times since last May. One explanation offered is that he arrested a man who is a personal friend of Street Cleaning Commissioner Percival Natch.

Buckridge was a plain-clothes man, then under Capt. Edward Walsh of the East 126th street station, which takes in part of the Thirty-fourth Assembly district, of which Natch is the leader. Buckridge was told that he would make a deal with the hand-picked men, who were plentiful in the district. He arrested two men who were in touch with the leader, and Buckridge was told that he would make a deal with the hand-picked men, who were plentiful in the district.
